- Elizabeth Shuey, PhD Candidate, Department of Child Development, Tufts University, Fall 2013-Spring 2015
Dissertation Title: “The Neighborhood Context of Child Care Selection and Child Well-Being among Immigrant Families”

Committee on Student Life (CSL)

- Chair (Sept. 2014-March 2015)
- Member (2011-12, 2014-2016)
- General description and duties of the CSL: Collaborate with the university administration in the formulation of the policies and regulations that guide undergraduate life; hear appeals by students who have been disciplined by the university and appeals of decisions handed down by the student judiciary committee; hear original judicial review cases brought against student organizations; review changes to student governmental procedures and documents, including constitutional changes; choose finalists and winner of the annual Wendell Phillips Award
- Selection of specific activities and duties as Chair:
 - Chair, original inquiry judicial review case brought against a fraternity organization (November 7, 2014) – work with Mickey Toogood (Judicial Affairs Officer), Bruce

Reitman (Dean of Campus Life and Student Leadership), and Su McGlone (Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life) to prepare all CSL members in the judicial training process and to prepare them specifically for this case. This case was large and significant because it was the first fraternity/sorority case that came to the faculty in over 17 years, given that the AS&E faculty only recently voted to reengage with Greek life on campus in 2013-14.

- Chair other appeals for judicial review that come before the CSL
- Organize CSL subcommittee collaboration with EEOC to address and promote an AS&E policy on identity harassment
- Organize CSL subcommittee collaboration with the Executive Committee to help institute a process to involve faculty in the Provost's proposal for AS&E restructuring
- Provide CSL input to TCU Judiciary as they made significant changes to the bylaws regarding the student organization recognition and re-recognition process
- Provide CSL input to Mary Pat McMahon (Dean of Student Services) and Mickey Toogood (Judicial Affairs Officer) as they made significant changes to Tufts University's Codes of Conduct, Academic Integrity, and Student Judicial Process Handbooks
- Oversee/organize Wendell Phillips Award advertisement, question selection, and vote tallying
- Interim Chair, student appeal of a judicial decision (May 8, 2014)
